In a counterfactual or speculative conditional sentence, a situation is described as dependent on a condition that is known to be false, or presented as unlikely. The time frame of the hypothetical situation may be past, present or future, and the time frame of the condition does not always correspond to that of the consequence.

Puritan history, as is taught in America today, usually focuses in on the Puritans during the 1600's as they were arriving in America. But to really understand the Puritans it is necessary to go back with them across the Atlantic Ocean to England. We must go back in time 100 years earlier to their origins in the England of Henry VIII.
